ANDHRA PRADESH ELECTRICITY REGULATORY COMMISSION HYDERABAD.

Lr. No. APERC/Secy/F.No.S-19/2020 (Vol-2).

Date: 27-10-2020.

NOTIFYING THE APERC REGULATION

REGULATION NO. 2 OF 2020.

INTRODUCTION

This Commission has, by way of APERC\(Adaptation\) Regulation, 2014 adapted all the Regulations made by the erstwhile Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission. Accordingly, the following two Regulations were being followed by this Commission since its constitution consequent to the bifurcation of the united State of Andhra Pradesh:

1. The Advocate on Record for Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission in Supreme Court (Appointment, condition of appointment and Remuneration) Regulations 1999. (Regulation No.5 of 1999)
2. Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission (Terms and Conditions of Appointment and Payment of Remuneration to Standing Counsel/Counsel) Regulation, 2013. (Regulation 8 of 2013)

As the above two Regulations have become quite dated and there arose a need to have a consolidated Regulation on the subject matter, the Commission decided to frame a new Regulation. Accordingly, a draft Regulation was prepared and put up in Public domain on 15-09-2020 inviting comments from the Public by 09-10-2020. No comments / views were received from the Public on the proposed draft Regulation.

Therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by Section 181 of the Electricity Act, 2003 (36 of 2003) and all other powers enabling it on that behalf, the Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission notifies the following Regulation.

Andhra Pradesh Electricity Regulatory Commission (Terms & Conditions of Appointment and Payment of Remuneration to Empanelled Advocate) Regulations, 2020

Duties and Responsibilities

7. The following are the duties and responsibilities of the Empanelled Advocate:

(a) The Empanelled Advocate before all the fora shall appear only when the case is specifically entrusted to him for entering appearance. They are not entitled to claim any fees, unless they enter appearance on instructions.

(b) The Empanelled Advocate, shall not appear against the Commission in the case or cases, which are entrusted to them and in the cases which have similar issues. They shall not represent or give opinion or advise others in such cases against the interests of the Commission, either directly or indirectly.

(c) The Empanelled Advocate shall have the right to represent for and on behalf of any other client in any case or matter, which shall not, however, interfere with or be in conflict with the issues involved in the cases entrusted to him to represent the Commission.

(d) The Empanelled Advocate shall not advise any party or accept any case or matter against the Commission, any member or its officers or employees, or any case or matter in which he has appeared or tendered his advice.

(e) The Empanelled Advocate, unless instructed in writing by the Commission, shall not delegate any case, brief or assignment given to him to any other advocate other than his office colleagues in usual course but shall deal and necessarily appear for the effective hearings by himself.

(f) The Empanelled Advocate shall coordinate or cooperate with any other advocate that may be engaged to appear in any case or matter by the Commission.

(g) The Empanelled Advocate shall maintain absolute secrecy and confidentiality about the case or matter of the Commission.

- (h) The Empanelled Advocate shall accept such other terms and conditions of the empanelment as may be determined by the Commission from time to time.
- (i) Cases involving similar issues or matters or otherwise interlinked or clubbed may be entrusted to the same Empanelled Advocate as far as possible, unless otherwise found necessary.
- (j) The Empanelled Advocate shall not necessarily be for a particular Court and shall accept any case or matter assigned to him and shall not refuse to accept any professional task without reasonable cause.
- (k) The Empanelled Advocate shall not refuse to accept any assignment otherwise than on grounds of ill health, conflict of interest or any other reason to the satisfaction of the Commission.
- (l) The engagement or allotment of cases or matters to the Empanelled Advocate shall be at the discretion of the Commission.
- (m) During the term of the empanelment and thereafter, any confidential information relating to the Commission, any officer, employee or representative of the Commission obtained by the Empanelled Advocate, under or by virtue of the empanelment, shall be maintained as professional communication within the meaning of Section 126 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (1 of 1872) and he shall not disclose the information to any person without the prior written consent of the Commission, unless such information is required to be disclosed in pursuance of an order of any competent court, tribunal exercising jurisdiction.
- (n) The Empanelled Advocate shall appear in the cases assigned to him and also appear before Trial courts, Tribunals and any other Statutory bodies as and when required.
- (o) The Empanelled Advocate must submit quarterly reports of the Commission matters pending with them and keep the Commission informed about the important developments in the case from time to time particularly with regard to drafting, filing of papers, dates of hearing of the case, order etc.

(p) The Empanelled Advocate must prepare the draft of the Application/Petition/Counter Affidavits which are to be filed before the adjudicating authorities. However, the same shall be filed after obtaining the prior written approval of the Commission.

(q) Upon termination, suspension or non-renewal of empanelment, as the case may be, the Empanelled Advocate shall handover the case file or matter forthwith to another Empanelled Advocate appointed by the Commission along with all documents and records connected thereto duly marked and flagged with his no objection certificate.

(r) Mere empanelment of an advocate shall not bind the Commission necessarily to assure him of engagement in any case or to obtain any service from him or to pay any fee or charges therefor.

(s) The allotment of a case or matter to an Empanelled Advocate shall be solely at the discretion of the Commission.

PART-VII

Fees and Expenses

8. Supreme Court: The scale of fees and expenses payable to the Empanelled Advocate representing the Commission shall be as specified in the Schedule-I appended.
